

Belen Orta.

Belen is a sculptress who is very engaged with social issues. A graduate in Fine Arts, an art curator as well as an artistic festivals organizer, she has gained much international recognition.

In “Water Scenes” she show us her latest work “Tensions in gender stereotypes”, a song to the emancipation and liberation of the creative woman. Her work of big formats can be seen in parks such as the Adamuz’s corner in Valencia (Spain), Minglanilla Park in Cuenca, Verzegnis Park in Italy, Cartagena’s harbour (Spain) and museums. She has also held private collections all around the world.